The Business Networking Lunch held yesterday had some great information! Thank you to our speaker Dawn-Marie Joseph – feel free to call her at 517-204-5580, with your ideas or any questions.

Thanks to both of our sponsors for this lunch:

The Greater Lansing Convention and Visitors Bureau (GLCVB), 500 E. Michigan Ave., Suite 180, Lansing, MI 48912, 517-377-1410 (Jan Pfeiffer), 1-866-377-1410, www.lansing.org. The GLCVB is the first convention and visitors bureau in Michigan to be accredited through the Destination Marketing Association International.

Capital Area Michigan Works! (CAMW), www.camw.org, 1-800-285-WORK (9675). Capital Area Michigan Works! (CAMW) oversees workforce development services in the tri-county area (Clinton, Eaton, and Ingham Counties). CAMW will be promoting the National Career Readiness Certificate (NCRC), a nationwide credential through ACT and WorkKeys that verifies to employers an individual has the basic skills necessary to succeed in the workforce -- Reading, Math, and Locating Information. ACT has researched over 16,000 occupations, and these three skills are highly important to the majority of jobs in the workplace. NCRC is available to businesses and job seekers FREE of charge through local CAMW agencies.

Next Month's Luncheon is on Thursday, March 25 – The Michigan Retailers Association speaking on digital security with credit card processing.

St. Patrick's Day After Hours Mixer, Wednesday, March 17, 5 pm til ? – Write it on your calendar now! This Chamber After Hours Mixer will be held at Gracie's Place, 151 S. Putnam St., (517-655-1100), and will feature food and beverages from the Williamston area. They will have a corn stove on the patio to keep us warm. Celebrate St. Patrick's Day in Williamston! Free to attend event and sample foods. Cash bar available.

Umbrellas in April, Friday, April 2 – The Discover First Friday event for April is “Umbrellas in April”. One of the events is to fill one block with open umbrellas. Rain or shine, plan on being in downtown Williamston with your open umbrella. We will have a photographer on top of one of the downtown buildings to take a picture of downtown Williamston with everyone holding an open umbrella. What a photo opportunity! Bring your family and friends with any color umbrella and help fill the streets for a great pictures. There will also be a contest for “Artist Painted Umbrellas”. For only $5 per umbrella entry, hand paint or otherwise decorate an old umbrella and enter it in the contest. For more information on Umbrellas in April, contact Wendy at wendy@limnerpress.com.

NEEDED - Dark colored umbrellas are needed on which will be painted “VISIT WILLIAMSTON”. Drop off your no longer needed dark colored umbrellas to Wood & Sons Corn Bin, Limner Press, or the Chamber office as soon as possible. WE NEED 16 TOTAL! Wendy Shaft will paint the tops of the umbrellas in single letters, “VISIT WILLIAMSTON”, one letter per umbrella so that when we all gather in the 100 block of South Putnam, the picture will be a great inviting tool for all of us to use! If you would like your umbrella back, please label it, but it will come back with the letter on it!
